1. The Nationalist Chungming (121-26, 31-38) - Chitung (117-37, 37-04) detachment of the Chiang Huai Column, headed by P'U Ping-liang (蒲秉良), has been active along the coasts of Chungming Island and Chitung making observations in order to organize the local fishermen to resist the Communists.
2. In early November 1949, members of the Chungming-Chitung detachment intercepted an armed Communist fishing vessel off the coast near Chitung. Six of the group, disguised as fishermen, boarded the vessel and, after a hand-to-hand combat, captured it.
3. The Communist vessel was an armed fishing boat with a capacity of sixty tons, the CHUNG HING (忠興), of the Communist Chiao Tung (膠東) Military District Coastal Defense Office of East Shantung Province. A military pass, marked "No. 52", from the military district was found aboard. The boat's cargo consisted of scrap copper and lead, bleaching powder, ammonium chloride, fish and beer. The vessel had been drifting off her course for some time before her capture.
